PRESS RELEASE

Troup County Tax Commissioner, Shane Frailey wants to remind all taxpayers that real and personal property tax bills for 2017 are in the process of being sent out and will be due on November 15, 2017. Payments can be made in person or by mail at 100 Ridley Ave, Lagrange, Ga 30240.

He also wants to remind all citizens that for convenience we have a secure drop box located in the drive as you exit the public parking lot area of the Government Center on Ridley Ave. The use of MasterCard, Visa or Discover is available for payment purposes as well as cash or check. You may also pay online at Troupcountytax.com or by calling 855-508-6636.

If you purchased property after January 1, 2017 you may not receive a tax bill, due to the bill being in the previous owner's name. Please call 706-883-1620 if you have any questions about taxes you owe on your property purchased after January 1, 2017 and we will give you the tax amount due or mail you a new owner's bill.

In other business, the Tax Office will have a representative at the Hogansville City Hall on Monday November 6, 2017 from 9am to 4pm and at West Point City Hall on November 7, 2017 from 9am to 4pm for convenience of accepting payments.
